To help you focus your thinking about Drama before the Intensive Week, the Teaching Artist has designed an activity that will take you about 1 hour to complete.

You will find a document outlining the Drama Challenge

In overview there are two parts to this Drama Challenge:

- 1 A warm up - Click the first video on the right of this page and Caitlin will guide you through your Warm up
 - Followed by a short reflection that is included in your Learning Journal
- 2 Personal Story Drama Generator Activity - Click the second video and Caitlin will explain the activity
 - Followed by a short reflection that is included in your Learning Journal

Remember to focus on how story is important in Drama.

This activity will be a springboard for your Drama workshop during the Intensive Week. You will also be including this work in your Learning Journal.
